POSITION VACANCY

Police Officer

The Hooksett Police Department is currently accepting applications for the position of Police Officer.

Candidates range from $20.66 ($42,972) to $32.37 ($67,326) depending on past police officer experience. All candidates must successfully complete all hiring phases to include written exam (waived for certified applicants), physical agility testing, oral board, psychological exam, polygraph exam and medical/physical exam as well as an extensive background check.

Applications received by January 27, 2021 will be eligible for the next test scheduled for January 30, 2021 at 0830 hours, at the Hooksett Police Department (15 Legends Drive Hooksett, NH 03106). Those candidates who successfully complete the written test will advance to the physical agility test (applicants are required to have a doctor's note to be eligible to participate in the physical agility test) to be held directly following the written test. Upon successful completion of the physical agility test, candidates will advance to a comprehensive interview scheduled for February 3, 2021 or February 4, 2021. If all three phases are successfully completed by the candidate, a background investigation may follow.

Full Time Certified Police Officer applicants will not have to complete the written test. Once full-time certified applications are received the applicant will be contacted directly by Captain Jake Robie to schedule an oral board and a physical agility test.
